Note.—Since the year 1825, when the trade between Great Britain and Ireland was placed under coasting regulations, the official record of the interchange of produce and manufactures between the two countries (except in so far as the article of Corn is concerned) has of necessity been discontinued. The foregoing Return, therefore, has been framed from non-official documents, collected at the ports of exportation, and consisting chiefly of printed market and shipping reports.

Office of the Inspector-General of Imports and Exports, Custom-House, London, 14 May 1849.
